ISSUE #002

MARCH 2026

HIS MOST EMINENCE'S SPEECH FOR THE MONTH OF MARCH

Beloved sons and daughters of the Cherubim and Seraphim Movement Church Worldwide Ayo Ni O across the nations of the earth, grace, mercy and peace be unto you in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

The Church is already in the solemn and sacred Lenten season, a period set apart for deep reflection, genuine repentance, fervent prayer, and spiritual renewal. Lent is not a mere observance, it is a divine appointment. It is a time to draw nearer to God, to examine the state of the heart, and to realign with the will and purpose of Heaven.

During this holy season, the Lord requires more than abstinence from food. True fasting must be accompanied by compassion, generosity, and sacrificial love. The Word of God teaches that acceptable fasting includes caring for the needy, supporting the weak, comforting the sorrowful, and extending kindness to all.

Therefore, every member across the globe is enjoined to embrace a spirit of giving throughout this Lenten period. Give cheerfully. Give prayerfully. Give willingly. Let resources, time, and love be shared generously. In doing so, the life and character of Christ are reflected before the world.

Peaceful coexistence must also remain a priority in every parish, district, and nation. Unity strengthens the body of Christ. Let forgiveness replace offence, and let understanding overcome division.

At the same time, vigilance is necessary. Every worship centre must remain orderly and security conscious. Members are encouraged to stay alert, observant, and cooperative with all security measures put in place. Faith does not cancel wisdom. While trust is placed in divine protection, responsibility must also be upheld, especially within and around places of worship.

May this Lenten season deepen faith, strengthen discipline, and prepare hearts for greater manifestations of God's glory. The Lord blesses and upholds the Church in every nation.

MAY YOU LOOK BACK WITH JOY ON THE YEARS OF YOUR LIFE AND WITH HOPE FOR THOSE TO COME.

GOD SEES YOU, ESPECIALLY NOW

Hello our precious children,

Did you know that God sees you every single day?

He sees you when you wake up in the morning. He sees you when you are playing. He sees you in school. And He smiles when you choose to do what is right.

Especially during this fasting period, God is watching our hearts closely. Fasting is not only for adults. Even if you are small and not fasting from food, you can fast in your own special way. You can:

- * Fast from fighting
- * Fast from telling lies
- * Fast from being rude
- * Fast from watching too much TV
- * Fast from bad habits

Instead, you can choose to pray more, obey quickly, speak kindly, and help at home. Sometimes you may think, "Nobody saw what I did." But God always sees, not to quickly punish you, but because He loves you and wants you to grow into a strong and good child.

When you share your toys, help mummy or daddy, respect your teachers, and say sorry when you are wrong, God is happy.

You do not have to be big before you serve God. You can clap in church, sing joyfully, listen during Bible lessons, and talk to Jesus every day. If you make a mistake, do not be afraid.

Pray and say,

"Dear God, I am sorry. Help me to do better."

God forgives and gives you another chance.

During this fasting season, let your simple goal be this:

- * Be kind.
- * Be truthful.
- * Be obedient.

God sees you. God loves you. And He is proud of you when you choose what is right.

Word of Declaration: "I will make God happy with my choices."

LET'S TALK WITH KING SAMBA SPIRIT

WHEN MONEY PRESSURE ENTERS THE HOME

In many homes today, one silent visitor keeps knocking "financial pressure". The cost of food keeps rising. School fees are not smiling. Rent comes faster than expected. Transport fares change without warning. Daily living has become heavier for many families.

"When money becomes tight, emotions often become tight too."

Many marriages are not ending because love has disappeared. They are struggling because stress has taken over conversations. A man who once felt confident may begin to feel inadequate when he cannot provide as he used to. A woman who manages the home may feel overwhelmed when needs keep increasing but resources remain the same. Even when parents try to hide it, children can sense when something is not right.

"The real problem is not always the lack of money. Sometimes, it is how the pressure is handled."

Let's quickly take a look at the real problem:-

1. Unspoken worries can turn into silent resentment.
2. Comparison with other families can create unnecessary frustration.
3. Pride can stop honest discussions.
4. Before long, small misunderstandings grow bigger.

So what can be done?

1. Start with honest conversation. Sit down calmly and talk about the reality of the situation. Not to accuse. Not to blame. But to understand and plan together. Marriage is teamwork. Difficult seasons require stronger teamwork.

2. Adjusting lifestyle is not failure. It is wisdom. Reducing expenses, postponing certain plans, or saying "not now" to some desires does not reduce dignity.
3. Peace in the home is more important than impressing outsiders.
4. It is also important to involve God sincerely. Prayer brings calmness and direction.
5. While practical planning is necessary, divine wisdom makes planning effective. God cares about the needs of every household.
6. Above all, protect the atmosphere of the home. Children should not feel unsafe because of financial tension. Even in hard times, laughter, kindness, and reassurance should not disappear.

"No season lasts forever."

Many families who are comfortable today once passed through seasons of scarcity. What preserved them was not abundance, but unity.

"When money pressure enters the home, love must be guarded carefully."

- * Let patience speak louder than frustration.
- * Let understanding speak louder than anger.
- * Let unity speak louder than pride.

Because when love remains strong, every storm eventually passes.

Share this with your spouse and loved ones.
